Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish: Sunday at 8:30 a.m.

As a partnership practice, church envelopes for both Our Lady of Perpetual Help (OLPH) Parish and St. Ann Parish will be accepted in the collection baskets at all Masses. They will be given to the appropriate parish for deposit and will be reflected on parishioners' contribution statements. Please note, loose collections will remain with the parish where they are collected unless the cash is placed in an envelope and marked OLPH or St. Ann. Please make checks payable to the parish you would like designated for the contribution.

FRESH FROM THE MIND OF FR. ANDY

They are off and marching, these saintly students who constitute the 71st "Edition" of St. Ann Catholic School in Nashville, Illinois. The pupil population is 58 in Kindergarten through Eighth Grade. Add another 15 children (3-year-olds and 4-year-olds) in Pre-School for a grand total of 73. Classroom instruction began on Tuesday, August 13. With nearly two weeks under their belts, our boys and girls have taken that first step in growing in wisdom, knowledge, and understanding of the "things above" (Heaven and the Church) and the "things below" (Earth and Secular Society). Who are the ones charged with expanding the hearts and minds of our students? Well, they are these fine faculty members: Mrs. Jennifer Mason (Full-time Principal and Third & Fourth Grade Religion), Mrs. Janice Gaubatz (Eighth Grade Homeroom), Mrs. Ashley Crabtree (Seventh Grade Homeroom), Mrs. Marsha Holzhauer (Fifth & Sixth Grade Homeroom), newly-hired Mrs. Brianna Recker (Third & Fourth Grades), Mrs. Adrienne Rolf (First & Second Grades), Mrs. Valerie Bauza (Kindergarten), Mrs. Morgan Groom (Pre-School and its Director), and Mrs. Mary Wilke (Pre-School Aide). Mrs. Mason, St. Ann Catholic School's new principal, is still sane! After the first 100 days, let's pray that the same can be said! With a good head on her shoulders and an equally good heart, I'm confident that will be the case. March on, Mrs. Mason! Please join me in welcoming Mrs. Patricia Pille as an influential in-house adult. Mrs. Pille is St. Ann Catholic School's new After-School Program Director. She gives us one more reason to thank the Lord. Finally, our Eighth Graders are Mackenzie Bauza, Brooke Harris, Erica Kujawa, Noah Miller, Tailer Pelczynski, Collin Rolf, Ella Wesselmann, and Harrison Zgonina. As leaders of the student body, pray that these members of the Class of 2020 will be viewed as "20/20" role models upon their graduation in May!

Keep the faith and a smile on your face.

Peace and Joy — Father Andy

In Appreciation

Dear St. Ann Parishioners: Thank you so much for St. Ann's donation of canned goods, Gatorade, and t-shirts to our Human Services Office and Food Pantry to support neighbors in need in our community. As you know, even in highly stable economic times, this part of the Metro East still struggles, and the urban poor we serve are all too often just one missed paycheck, one missed rent payment, or one illness away from crisis and hunger. Your generosity helps us extend a loving hand to these children of God. May abundant blessings be yours.

Gratefully, Gerry Hasenstab, Executive Director, and Toni Muhammad, Assistant Executive Director, Catholic Urban Programs.

Vocation Corner

“The family is the domestic church, a concrete place to encounter our Lord, and this has been my experience. I grew up in sort of a Catholic paradise, a rural farming community, where the faith was at the center of our lives. I think even the cows were Catholic in my hometown of Cottonwood, Idaho. Children are often asked what they want to be when they grow up, and I always wanted to be a priest. Since my ordination in June 2018, I have found graces in the families of my parish community; they entrust me with their joys and difficulties, and find strength and healing God’s mercy. I know that I, too, must constantly deepen my relationship with the Lord, so that I, a little son of the Father, may become a more loving father to all of God’s children” (Father Joseph V. Lustig, Diocese of Boise, Idaho, Columbia, June 2019).
